SOME RECENT ISSUES IN

HARPER'S FRANKLIN SQUARE LIBRARY.

8vo, Paper Covers.

Kit and Kitty. A Novel. By R. D. BLACKMORE. 35 cents. No. 663.

Those who have read the works of this author need not be told that there is not a dull line in the book. He possesses a fascinating style, and everything from his pen is sure to be read with interest.—N. Y. Journal of Commerce.

An Ocean Tragedy. A Novel. By W. CLARK RUSSELL. 50 cents. No. 662.

Mr. Russell excels in all stories of the sea, having written a score of them, every one acceptable to the public. The one now issued is full of thrilling interest to young and old, and will fill a winter evening in any home circle with an ever-fresh source of delight.—N. Y. Journal of Commerce.

A Hazard of New Fortunes. A Novel. By WILLIAM DEAN HOWELLS. Illustrated. 75 cents. No. 661.

Never, certainly, has Mr. Howells written more brilliantly, more clearly, more firmly, or more attractively, than in this instance.—N. Y. Tribune.

The Bell of St. Paul's. A Novel. By WALTER BESANT. 35 cents. No. 660.

Told in the author's expressive, epigrammatic style, the story is one of rare fascination.—Portland Transcript.

Marooned. A Novel. By W. CLARK RUSSELL. 25 cents. No. 659.

No one has painted marine phenomena, or the movements of the ship at sea, with anything approaching Mr. Russell's fidelity, power, and picturesqueness. . . . All who read "Marooned" will enjoy it.—N. Y. Tribune.

Diana Wentworth. A Novel. By CAROLINE FOTHERGILL. 45 cents. No. 658.

A thoroughly good story. . . . We have not lately had many better novels than "Diana Wentworth."—Spectator, London.

Lady Car. A Novel. By Mrs. OLIPHANT. 30 cents. No. 657.

"Lady Car," by Mrs. Oliphant, is, of course, interesting because she wrote it. All of her stories take hold of the reader and make him finish them at one sitting. But beside mere interest it is an admirable study of character and a very clever presentation of the difference between facts and appearances.—Hartford Courant.

Ogeechee Cross-Firings. A Novel. By R. M. JOHNSTON. Illustrated by A. B. FROST. 35 cents. No. 656.

In "Ogeechee Cross-Firings" Richard Malcolm Johnston gives us one of the most successful of his studies of Southern life. The ttory is written with inimitable humor, and with a keen appreciasion of the peculiarities of the life which it depicts.—Boston Courier.

Margaret Maliphant. A Novel. By Mrs. COMYNS CARR. 45 cents. No. 655.

The story is charmingly told, and conveys delightful impressions. The character of "Margaret Maliphant" is a most interesting study. It is very skilfully and artistically developed, and the other personages in the tale are handled with hardly inferior ability.—N. Y. Sun.

The County. A Story of Social Life. 45 cents. No. 654.

It is a story of more than usual literary excellence. It is amusing, too; and one laughs easily at the writer's clever creation of Esme.—Utica Herald.

Through Love to Life. A Novel. By GILLAN VASE. 40 cents. No. 653.

Distinctly clever, bright, unconventional, and one of the books to be read.—Court Journal, London.

Uncle Piper of Piper's Hill. A Novel. By TASMA. 40 cents. No. 652.

The tone throughout is pure and healthy, the narrative brisk and cheerful.—Pall Mall Gazette, London.

Birch Dene. A Novel. By WILLIAM WESTALL. 45 cents. No. 651.

A decidedly good story.—Spectator, London.

The Day Will Come. A Novel. By Miss BRADDON. 45 cents. No. 650.

None who begin the tale can fail to read it to the close.—N. Y. Journal of Commerce.

Cleopatra. A Romance. By H. RIDER HAGGARD. Illustrated. 16mo, 25 cents. No. 649.

A great acquisition to the lovers of romance.—Saturday Review, London.

Micah Clarke: His Statement. By A. CONAN DOYLE. 45 cents. No. 648.

No abler historical novel has been published for many a day.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Zit and Xoe. A Novel. 25 cents. No. 647.

Original, natural, graceful, and profoundly interesting.—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

The Nether World. A Novel. By GEORGE GISSING. 45 cents. No. 646.

Interesting, and possesses a peculiar fascination, on account of the novel situations and unfamiliar scenes.—Boston Commonwealth.

Fraternity. A Romance. 35 cents. No. 645.

Taken for all in all, an unusual and admirable book.—N. Y. Herald.

The Phantom Future. A Novel. By HENRY S. MERRIMAN. 35 cents. No. 644.

Unusually lively and entertaining. . . . Full of bright sayings and good cheer.—Cincinnati Times-Star.

The Country Cousin. A Novel. By FRANCES MARY PEARD. 40 cents. No. 643.

A novel of sustained and thrilling interest.—Portland Transcript.

Lady Bluebeard. A Novel. By the Author of "Zit and Xoe." 40 cents. No. 642.

Has the double charm of a novel and of a clever traveller's journal.—Boston Herald.

A Dangerous Catspaw. A Novel. By D. CHRISTIE MURRAY and HENRY MURRAY. 30 cents. No. 641.

The plot is well put together, the action of the story is dramatic, and the several situations which make the turning-points in the narrative are managed easily and effectively.—The Watchman, Boston.

French Janet. A Novel. By SARAH TYTLER. 30 cents. No. 640.

The narrative is well sustained, and the characters are original.—Athenæum, London.

A Strange Manuscript Found in a Copper Cylinder. Illustrated. 50 cents. No. 639.

A strangely interesting tale, full of thrilling adventures, grim humor, wit, and startling paradoxes.—North-western Christian Advocate, Chicago.

Toilers of Babylon. A Novel. By B. L. FARJEON. 40 cents. No. 638.

As bright and interesting a story as Mr. Farjeon has ever told.—Brooklyn Union.

The Weaker Vessel. A Novel. By D. CHRISTIE MURRAY. Illustrated. 50 cents. No. 637.

Strong, bright, and clean, and it may be heartily recommended to all readers of fiction.—San Francisco Chronicle.

When a Man's Single. A Tale of Literary Life. By J. M. BARRIE. 35 cents. No. 636.

We must give Mr. Barrie the credit for having written nothing short of a delightful story.—N. Y. Times.

The Peril of Richard Pardon. A Novel. By B. L. FARJEON. Illustrated. 30 cents. No. 635.

An ingenious concoction of detective science and somnambulistic phenomena.—Boston Evening Traveller.

For Faith and Freedom. A Novel. By WALTER BESANT. Illustrated. 50 cents. No. 634.

Interesting, instructive, and eminently healthful reading.—Literary World, London.

The Countess Eve. A Novel. By J. H. SHORTHOUSE. 25 cents. No. 633.

Highly imaginative, humanly passionate, and picturesque. The form is thoroughly artistic, and the expression has a fitting elegance.—Nation, N. Y.

A Christmas Rose. A Novel. By R. E. FRANCILLON. 30 cents. No. 632.

Unique in its plot and sustained in its interest.—Methodist Protestant, Baltimore.

The Inner House. A Novel. By WALTER BESANT. 30 cents. No. 630.

The story is full of curious incidents, and no one at all interested in social science will fail to read it through at a single sitting.—Nashville American.

In Far Lochaber. A Novel. By WILLIAM BLACK. 40 cents. No. 629.

A story that will hold the attention, and interest from first to last with a constantly increasing tension.—Chicago Herald.

The Mediation of Ralph Hardelot. A Novel. By WILLIAM MINTO. 30 cents. No. 628.

A pleasant story, and pleasantly told by one who has done something to fit to historical facts the manners and customs of the feudal age.—N. Y. Times.

The Rebel Rose. A Novel. 40 cents. No. 627.

A deeply interesting study of politics and society in England.—Albany Journal.

Published by HARPER & BROTHERS, New York.

The above works are for sale by all booksellers, or will be sent by HARPER & BROTHERS, postage prepaid, to any part of the United States, Canada, or Mexico, on receipt of the price.
